DEFINITIONS

The following definitions shall apply to Forms CCC-502A, CCC-502B, CCC-502C, CCC-502D, CCC-502EZ and this appendix.

- 1 ACTIVE PERSONAL LABOR -is personally providing physical activities necessary in a farming operation, including activities involved in land preparation, planting, cultivating, harvesting, and marketing of agricultural commodities in the farming operation. Other physical activities include those physical activities required to establish and maintain conserving cover crops or conserving use acreages and those physical activities necessary in livestock operations.
- 2 ACTIVE PERSONAL MANAGEMENT is personally providing:
 - A The general supervision and direction of activities and labor involved in the farming operation; or
 - B Providing services (whether performed on-site or off-site) reasonably related and necessary to the farming operation including any of the following:
 - (1) Supervision of activities necessary in the farming operation, including activities involved in land preparation, planting, cultivating, harvesting, and marketing of agricultural commodities, as well as activities required to establish and maintain conserving cover crops or conserving use acreage and activities required in livestock operations.
 - (2) Business-related actions which include discretionary decision making;
 - (3) Evaluation of the financial condition and needs of the farming operation;
 - (4) Assistance in the structuring or preparation of financial reports or analyses for the farming operation;
 - (5) Consultations in or structuring of business-related financing arrangements for the farming operation;
 - (6) Marketing and promotion of agricultural commodities produced by the farming operation;
 - (7) Acquiring technical information used in the farming operation; or
 - (8) Any other management function reasonably necessary to conduct the farming operation and for which service the operation would ordinarily be charged a fee.
- 3 CAPITAL consists of the funding and rental value of livestock provided by an individual or entity to the farming operation in order for such operation to conduct farming activities. In determining whether an individual or entity has contributed capital to the farming operation, such capital must have been derived from a fund or account separate and distinct from that of any other individual or entity involved in such operation. Capital does not include the value of any labor or management which is contributed to the farming operation. A capital contribution may be a direct out-of-pocket input of a specified sum or an amount borrowed by the individual or entity. With respect to a farming operation which consists of more than one individual or entity:
 - A Such capital which is contributed to meet the requirements of 7 CFR Part 1400.201 (b) must be contributed directly by the individual or entity and must not be acquired as a result of a loan made to:
 - (1) The farming operation in which the individual or entity has an interest;
